Season subscription rates are applicable only when you purchase tickets for all four productions listed below. Some productions have multiple seating options, with higher prices generally correlating to closer or more desirable seats. For these productions, you can select your desired seating (and price point). Please note: Barber of Seville is the only production with assigned seats; for other sections, you will select your seat (within the zone you purchased) on the day of the performance. Subscription processing may experience a slight delay due to improvements we are making in our ticketing system. All subscription tickets will be delivered via email no later than one week before the first performance.
